Consistent quality you can trust

Problems

- Inferior disposable foodservice cloths cause high consumption and increase the time taken to clean
- Research shows that seven out of ten people would not return to a restaurant that is unclean
- The cost of waste disposal is constantly increasing; this means paper and cheap disposable cloths have real hidden costs

Solutions

- Quality has not been compromised, strong enough to stand up to the task it helps improve efficiency and reduce waste
- Designed to provide the ultimate cleaning, wherever hygiene is crucial and HACCP-standards need to be maintained
- Fully certified to be safe to use in contact with food, the J-Cloth® Plus proves a great solution for short term wiping

All Chicopee Europe Foodservice products carry a voluntarily obtained FCC certificate, and can be intentionally used in contact with foods.
